

SOCIAL SCIENCES DIVISIONAL BOARD

Approved Standing Orders (approved October 2016)

Ref. No. SSD/1

1. Terms of reference

- 1.1 The board will meet on Friday at 2.00 p.m. of Weeks Two and Seven.
- 1.2 The board's duties and responsibilities are as set down by Statute, (Statutes, 2002 Tit. V, Sect. II, cl. 1):
 - (a) the oversight of the organisation, development, and delivery of curricula (with an equal focus on graduate and on undergraduate studies) in collaboration with the colleges, and oversight and development of the general context of research, in the broad subject area covered by the division concerned, in close consultation with the units of academic administration in the division (hereinafter referred to as 'sub-units');
 - (b) the development and proposal, in collaboration with the colleges, sub-units, and academic services sector, of comprehensive and detailed strategic five-year plans and one-year operating statements covering academic, financial, information technology, physical resource, and staffing issues, bearing in mind the particular needs of small sub-units and interdisciplinary activities;
 - (c) within the context of approved plans and statements, and of overall university policies, the general oversight of and responsibility for all matters concerning budgets, space, syllabus, and staffing, across the sub-units of the division, in consultation with the colleges as thought appropriate by the board; provided that day-to-day operational responsibility for these matters shall be devolved to the sub-units, in the context of local plans and budgets delegated for that purpose, and that the board shall monitor the work of the sub-units against those plans and budgets;
 - (d) the periodic strategic review of particular sub-units;
 - (e) the approval of appointments and reappointments of academic staff made by the sub-units (but excluding appointments which are made by electoral boards established by statute or decree), and of appointments of heads of department, the consideration of proposals from the sub-units on the payment of salaries within the incremental scale for university lecturers, and the keeping under review of the general terms and conditions of employment of academic staff in the broad subject area;
 - (f) the settling of college associations for new and vacant academic posts, on the recommendation of the sub-units following liaison with colleges;
 - (g) the maintenance of educational quality and standards in the broad subject area;
 - (h) the consideration of reports of examiners, including external examiners, on the advice of the relevant sub-unit or sub-units;

- (i) the oversight of relationships between the sub-units, and the consideration (for detailed and balanced recommendation to Council) of any proposals to reorganise the sub-units;
- (j) the division's relations with the colleges at the strategic and the broad subject level, and in cases in which individual problems cannot be resolved between the colleges and the University at the sub-unit level;
- (k) the division's relations with the other divisions on matters of common interest;
- (l) the division's relations with the Committee on Continuing Education on matters of common interest and in all cases in which planned developments relate to part-time provision, outreach, or other continuing education activities;
- (m) the division's relations with the academic services sector at the broad subject level;
- (n) the division's relations with external funding agencies, subject to overall university policies and practice;
- (o) the oversight of fund raising in the broad subject area, subject to overall university policies and practice;
- (p) the regular review of the scope for further delegation of authority from the centre to the divisions, and from the divisions to the sub-units.

1.3 The board will appoint judges to consider the evidence submitted by any candidate for the Degree of Doctor of Letters, Doctor of Science, and the Degree of Doctor of Civil Law and, if it considers the evidence of sufficient merit for the degree, it shall give leave to the candidate to supplicate for the degree, and shall notify its decision in the University Gazette (Examination Regulations 2014, pp 865-874)

2. Dates and procedures at ordinary meetings

Stated meetings of the Divisional Board shall be held at 2 p.m. on each Friday in Second and Seventh Week; provided that, if he considers there is insufficient business, the Chair may (not later than 5 p.m. on the preceding Wednesday) cancel a particular meeting.

2.1 Confidentiality of Divisional Board and Divisional Board committee papers

- (i) Papers circulated to the board and its committees are confidential and must not be published; subject to that rule, members may use their discretion in discussing the contents privately with any individual whose opinion they desire to know.
- (ii) The contents of any papers marked 'Strictly Confidential' must in no case be divulged to or discussed with any person who is not a member of the Divisional Board without the consent of the Board.

2.2 Procedure at meetings

- (i) No motion, or amendment to a motion, shall be discussed or put to the vote unless it has been proposed and seconded.

- (ii) No motion for the suspension of Standing Orders shall be in order unless at least half of the members of the board are present; and no such motion shall be carried unless two thirds of the members present vote for it.
- (iii) The order of business shall be as follows:
 - (a) Minutes (to be taken as read and confirmed unless objection is raised).
 - (b) Chair's business.
 - (c) Business of the Divisional Board (to include reports from committees).
 - (d) Reports from, and business of, units.
 - (e) Communications from other bodies.
 - (f) Reserved business
- (iv) No junior member shall be present for the discussion of reserved business
- (v) No opposed business shall be begun after 4 p.m.

A question of which notice is received by the Secretary not later than noon on any Monday shall be placed on the agenda for the next following meeting of the Board.

A question of which such notice has not been given shall, if the Chair so desires, be delivered in writing to the Secretary at the meeting at which it is asked, and the Secretary shall in that case place it on the agenda for the next following meeting of the Board.

- (vi) If a member having given notice of a motion shall neither proceed with it on the day stated in the notice nor devolve the duty on another member, his notice shall be regarded as lapsed.

2.3 Absence of the Head of Division

- (i) The Associate Heads of Division shall act for the Head of Division in the event of temporary illness or unavailability. If the Chair is incapacitated or otherwise unavailable for a period of more than two weeks during term, the Board shall consider what action should be taken.
- (ii) During the period between the last stated meeting of the Board in each term and the first stated meeting of the Board in the following term, the Chair shall have full authority to take any decision on behalf of the Board, or of any of its committees, which it shall seem to him at his own absolute discretion necessary to take, subject always to report of any such decisions to the Board at its first stated meeting of the following term. In the absence of the Chair from any cause, such authority shall be vested in the Interim Chair nominated in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

2.4 Casting vote

The Chair (or the person taking the chair at any meeting of the Board) shall have a second or casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.

2.5 Review of Standing Orders

The board shall review annually in Michaelmas Term its Standing Orders.
